The arrangements for the funeral had not been decided when THE LEADER went to press, but the interment will probably take place tomorrow at Tolia.

MILLINERY.
Mrs. M. Archdeacon is receiving Spring goods daily. Complete line of hand-made patterns will be displayed in a few weeks. Cor. Third and Market streets.

In the spring a young man's fancy may be occupied with love. But a maiden wants a hat that's trimmed up with a turtle dove. Or a robin or a catbird. Or some other feathered thing. That is listed from ten dollars up to twenty-five per wing.

In the spring a married woman goes house-hunting every day. Wasting nickels on the streetcars. While her hubby works away. And, at night, all wan and weary—Sick at heart—she tells him that. After all, there's something homelike in their stuffy little flat.

Mr. Lamar is the father of Mrs. B. W. Goodman of this city, and has many friends here who hope that he may speedily recover.

BEWARE OF SWINDLERS!

Word of Caution to "The Ledger's" Many County Friends.

THE LEADER again calls the attention of its country friends to the gilt-globed gentlemen who are just now peddling various lines of merchandise throughout our county.

It is always safe to steer clear of these fellows.

At the prices they will lead you to believe they sell their stuff at, any legitimate merchant would gobble it up quickly, and the expense of horses and wagons could be dispensed with.

We understand they offer certain quantities for so much money, for which they will take a negotiable note. This note you will have to pay, no matter what value you get for it.

We hope none of THE LEADER's readers will be "taken in" by these sleek-tongued individuals.

MR. ISAAC N. WATSON.

Operation Performed, and Hopes Entertained for His Recovery.

Dr. Ransohoff, the eminent surgeon of Cincinnati, yesterday afternoon successfully performed the operation of trephining on Mr. Isaac N. Watson, whose skull was fractured by a bursting pulley on Tuesday.

He was assisted by Drs. Adamson, Reed, Harover, Smoot, Yazell and Davis of this city.

The fracture was in the forehead above the right eye.

The broken bone was removed and the edges clipped, leaving a hole about two inches in diameter, which was closed by a silver plate.

Mr. Watson rallied about 7 o'clock last evening, resting very well during the night, and is thought to be improving this morning.

Strong hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Mr. S. T. Ford, who lectured at the Court-house last night under the auspices of the Teachers' Association of this city, was greeted by an audience more than half filling that auditorium, and it was a charmed gathering too.

Mr. Ford's entertaining abilities lie not along any one line, neither does he tax his hearers' patience by a prosy essay upon some ultra theme, but, being endowed with great versatility of face, form and expression, he covers the whole range of mimicry, impersonation, pathos and fun.

The acrobats were beyond the anticipation of those in charge and the whole scheme was one of delight to those who heard Mr. Ford as well as of monetary success to those in charge.

"HAY," RUBES!

The Loft is Empty and More Hay is Needed at Once!

Get your rakes, And come-a-runnin'.

There will be a called meeting of the jolly Haymakers this evening, immediately following the session of Wyandotte Tribe, I. O. B. W.

The Chief Hostler says the Loft is empty and the cattle are hungry, and a fresh supply of "fodder" is needed.

Several tramps will be on hand, and a ton or two of "hay" will be turned out while the ga shins. Black only.

Be there!

If You Are Just Out Shopping

The Dress Goods... Congress Convenes!

Not a day too early but early enough. We know you want to see what the spring of 1901 has to offer. If you buy now you will be glad when the bright April days find you prepared—no hurry or worry but leisure for enjoyment of the flower and autumn shades and shades are growing under the accumulating loads of new goods. Intelligent dress goods buying cannot be done if our stock is not consulted. This descriptive word of some.

$1.65 RAINETTA for $1.25.

This splendid offering comes just when dozens of women are thinking of a new suit for the spring. Made of thoroughly washed wool that can be easily brushed—with the "body" that will hang correctly and hold its shape. It's a rain deer. We took all the jobber had after his orders were filled and can save you a third of the price. Black only.

ETAMINE!

Is an open mesh material—as different as can be from an iron frame gingham, which it most resembles. In that statement clear. This new old friend has had various charming treatments and is one of the high class novelties of the season. Black only. 50c, 75c.

MELANGE!

In gray and rose color, both beautiful shades. This is a slightly corded goods, like a very fine poplin. All wool of course and full is inches wide. A good deal for the money, 50c a yard.

Remember, we'll quit selling when we quit exelling.
